Printed Devices & Applications Workshop Focus:

The objective of the Printed Devices Workshop is to provide a unique forum that brings together scientists, engineers, manufacturing, academia, and business people from around the world who work in the area of printed electronics as an emerging packaging technology. This workshop enables discussion and presentations on the latest materials, process, design & emerging applications of printed electronics technology.

- Digital Printing / Deposition Technologies
- Nanomaterials, inks & epoxies
- Printed devices – Active and passive
- Thin & printable battery technology
- Membrane and capacitive switches
- Novel die interconnect
- Paper based, PET & PVC substrate media
- Printable display & lighting
- Antennas
- Design, Simulation and Modeling
- Applications and new markets
- Convergence of Graphics & electronics

Those wishing to present a paper at the Printed Devices & Applications Advanced Technology Workshop must submit a 200-300 word abstract electronically no later than February 12, 2010, using the on-line submittal form at: www.imaps.org/abstracts.htm. Full written papers are not required; however, an extended abstract of 1-4 pages is due for accepted abstracts no later than April 2, 2010.

Please contact Jackki Morris-Joyner by email at jmorris@imaps.org or by phone at 202-548-4001 if you have questions.

Accepted papers may be considered for publication in the IMAPS Journal of Microelectronics and Electronic Packaging. All Speakers are required to pay a reduced registration fee and are required to attend the entire event.
