

Welcome from the Governor

GOVERNOR ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

November 11, 2007

International Microelectronics and Packaging Society

On behalf of all Californians, I am delighted to extend my greetings to everyone gathered for your fortieth anniversary symposium in San José.

California is proud to host big events like yours that showcase the ingenuity of our nation. As one of the world's largest gatherings of microelectronics and packaging experts, this conference is sure to be of great benefit to your industry. I commend your society, special guests and exhibitors for your commitment to maintaining America's technological prowess and our high quality of life.

While here in the Golden State, I encourage your conference participants to take a trip to some of California's many beautiful sights. Whether staying in fantastic San José, traveling to charming San Francisco or heading to the scenic Napa Valley, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful symposium.

Sincerely,
